The rumor was current to-day that Washington Park might abandon the field Washington Park might abandon the field after a few days and that the dates might be divided between Hawthorne. Harlem and Worth, but to-night Secretary Howard declared the meeting would continue for the allotted twenty-five days. If this course is pursued the club will be forced, despite the big receipts on Derby Day, to force a deficit of many thousands of dollars. In order to retain its standing with the Western Jockey Club, the organization must operate at least six days. Abandonment of its programme before that time would mean that the great American run on Saturday would be the last ever run.

TWO HARD FIGHTS

NOW IN PROSPECT

Jack Root May Meet George Gardiner and Hanlon May Battle McClelland Before West End Club.

Not only is a battle between Jack Root and George Gardiner a possibility for the West End Club in the near future, but a match between Eddle Hanlon and Jack McClelland is extremely likely, if dates can be arranged for the next faw weeks. Word received from Root yesterday ex-pressed his willingness to fight here, while telegram was also received from Eddie Hanlon asking that a date be set for a match with Jack McClelland before the same institution. Jimmy Briggs of Boston alos wired on and asked for a local bout. Abe Attell, who is to battle Johnny Re-Club next Thursday evening, reached the city from Chicago yesterday and immediately went to the county to train at Roth's Grove. He was accompanied by Tommy Bramble, Nick Santora and Scottv. Shirlock.

Attell will do little work in the two days before the battle, as he claims to be in form after his work in Chicago. He has gone to the country to take an easy time. Johnny Regan was visited at his quarters on the South Side by local sporting men, and his work was watched with in-terest. Joe Lydon, the local amateur athlete, went on with him and did some fast sparring. Lydon is considerably heavler than Regan, but said that Johnny had improved sufficiently in strength to make
